Of all the pleasures which nature has given man the power to enjoy the keenest, is that derived from fair contest. To the winner in any fair rivalry where wit is pitted against wit, effort against effort, endurance against endurance, there is a satisfaction not to be found in any other pleasure. The sense of superiority thus acquired is the only sense of superiority that is laudable and bears no resemblance to vanity which is engendered by wealth or mere success of physical strength or charm. The loser in a fair contest is yet winner by the mental development acquired through contesting gallantly against keen opposition. To the winners in this popularity contest the pleasure of the strife will be equal to the magnitude of the prizes.

We are making an earnest effort to represent the people of High Point in an adequate manner, reflecting through our columns the progressiveness of our citizens and we trust that our readers will co-operate with us in our efforts by joining actively in the contest.

ABSOLUTELY FREE

No entrance fee or other expense of any kind will be attached to the contest and all The Review asks of the persons entering the race is their hearty co-operation in making the contest an enthusiastic and friendly struggle for leadership.

WHO MAY NOT ENTER

No employee or immediate relative of an employee of The Review or immediate relative of the proprietor may enter the contest. Otherwise the contest is open to all white persons wishing to enter.

THE JUDGES

The final count of votes will be made by a committee of three prominent local business men who will be absolutely disinterested parties. The committee will be announced later. Votes once cast are not transferable to another contestant.

MANAGEMENT

For the purpose of conducting the contest The Review has made arrangements whereby the services of Mr. Rene Bidez have been secured. Mr. Bidez is a young man of much refinement and accomplishment and a person in whose acquaintance the contestants will all delight. He will have entire charge of the contest and his decisions in all matters relating to it will be final. All contestants entering the race must agree to be governed by the rules of the contest and decisions of the Manager.

IN CONCLUSION

This is to be one of the greatest contests inaugurated by any paper in the State. We have spared no expense to make it a live proposition that will keep the entire community keenly interested in the final outcome.

We are endeavoring by every means we can obtain to give High Point the newest and most up-to-date paper in the State and we believe that the citizens appreciate our efforts and will extend to us in this contest the same hearty co-operation that we have enjoyed in the past and for which, by the way, we take this opportunity to express our gratitude.

See nomination blank, voting coupon and other information in regard to contest elsewhere

Don't at no time get over confident for one you least suspect may have many votes "up their sleeve." Work is what wins.

SOLDIERS ARE MAD

Texas Sergeant Sent to Life Imprisonment

BAYONETTED A MAN TO DEATH

Officers Resign—Companies Ask to be Mustered Out—Whole State Guard Demoralized—Man's Family Destitute.—U. S. Investigating.

Dallas, Texas.—With three line officers and four company officers having tendered their resignations and three companies urgently requesting the Governor to muster them out, the Texas National Guard is practically demoralized, as the result of the recent conviction of Sergeant Manley of Company K, who bayoneted and killed a spectator during President Taft's visit to Dallas last year. Manley was given a life sentence in the penitentiary. His own company promptly asked to be relieved from further military duty and this action was immediately followed by the crack Kirby rifle company of Austin and Captain Groes' company at Beaumont. Other companies are expected to take similar action. Much speculation has been aroused by the report that an agent of the judge advocate general of the United States army has been in Dallas to investigate the Manley case. It is said by some that the Federal government may interfere in behalf of the convicted soldier. Manley is a rug-maker and his family is practically destitute. National guardsmen are contributing to the support of his wife and baby and paying his lawyers.

Several officers have been induced to hold up their resignations temporarily by the adjutant general.

Is She Doing Like Cook?

New York.—To back his belief that Belle Elmore, the wife of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, still lives, Dr. J. M. Munyon, of Philadelphia, has offered a reward of $50,000 to anyone who will produce her.

"I believe," continued Dr. Munyon, who formerly employed Crippen, "that either the woman is hiding to carry out one of the most consummate revengees in the annals of jealousy or else that she has carried an advertising game too far. I have received several letters from persons who know Mrs. Crippen, telling me that they had seen her alive in this country within the last few weeks."

A Noble Lad.

Brookton, Mass.—Sixteen-year-old Roy Baker has been given the custody of his three younger sisters by Judge Reed, of the Police Court. This is the first time in this city that a minor has been intrusted with such responsibility.

Young Baker's mother was last week sentenced to Sherborn. The Court intended to send the three sisters to a charitable institution, but Roy pleaded that he be allowed to support them. He works in a local department store. He is a very energetic boy.

President's Panama Trip.

Washington.—President Taft's Panama trip will occupy only 12 days according to present plans. Returning from the isthmus the President will come ashore at Charleston the night of November 22. He will proceed to Richmond, Va., by train and make an address before the Virginia School Teachers' Association in that city November 23. The President will be back in Washington the evening of the twenty-third.

Friends to Have a Feast.

New York.—Twelve friends of the late Ratje Siedenburg, a well-to-do business man who died here last October, are directed by the terms of his will, filed for probate, to eat a dinner costing $500 or $41.66 2-3 a plate, at the expense of his estate. The selection of the guests and the time and place of the dinner are left to his executor, with the sole proviso that the dinner must be eaten within three months of the testator's death.

Twelve Tons of Records.

Manila.—E. L. Worcester, a member of the Philippine Commission; Frank W. Carpenter, the executive secretary of the Philippines; Ignacio Villamor, Attorney-General and Chas. H. Sleeper, Director of the Bureau of Lands, left here on the steamer Manchuria for the United States. They are on their way to Washington, and have with them all the records bearing on the controversy over the friar lands in the Philippines. These records weigh about twelve tons.

Iowa Decreases in Population.

Washington, D. C.—The population of the State of Iowa is 2,224,771, according to the enumeration in the Thirteenth Census. This is a decrease of 7,082 or 0.3 per cent. under 2,231,853 in 1900. The increase from 1890 to 1900 was 319,572, or 16.7 per cent. The decrease in the population did not surprise Census Bureau officials, as it was in line with what was expected in the agricultural regions of the Middle West.

THOUGHT SHE HAD PRACTISED

Frenchman's Suspicious Really Something of a Compliment to the Men of America.

Claude Grahame White, the English aviator, praised, at a dinner in New York, the good fellowship of Americans.

"The American woman is regarded abroad as an angel," he said. "The man is admittedly a good fellow, but an angel he is far from being."

"You've heard of the Frenchman, perhaps, whose sweetheart spent the summer in America? After her return the poor Frenchman seemed quite blue."

"What's the matter with you?" a friend asked.

"I am worried," the other muttered, "about my fiancée. You see, since her return from America she kisses so much better that she used to."

He Was a Boston Boy.

"Your little boy must be very intelligent," said a visitor to a Boston school teacher whose five-year-old son was forming Greek words with building blocks.

"Intelligent!" exclaimed the proud parent. "He is phenomenally gifted. As an example of his early erudition, what do you suppose was the first words he ever spoke?"

"Papa" and "mamma"?"

"Stuff and nonsense!" ejaculated the father in a tone of disgust. "Why, the day he was 12 months old he suddenly laid down his algebra and said to me: 'Father, the longer I live the more indubitable proofs I perceive that there is in Boston as much culture to the square inch as there ever was in the ambient area of ancient Athens!'"

STOPPED SHORT

Taking Tonics, and Built Up on Right Food.

The mistake is frequently made of trying to build up a worn-out nervous system on so-called tonics—drugs.

New material from which to rebuild wasted nerve cells is what should be supplied, and this can be obtained only from proper food.

"Two years ago I found myself on the verge of a complete nervous collapse, due to overwork and study, and to illness in the family," writes a Wisconsin young mother.

"My friends became alarmed because I grew pale and thin and could not sleep nights. I took various tonics prescribed by physicians, but their effects wore off shortly after I stopped taking them. My food did not seem to nourish me and I gained no flesh nor blood.

"Reading of Grape-Nuts, I determined to stop the tonics and see what a change of diet would do. I ate Grape-Nuts four times a day, with cream and drank milk also, went to bed early after eating a dish of Grape-Nuts.

"In about two weeks I was sleeping soundly. In a short time gained 20 pounds in weight and felt like a different woman. My little daughter whom I was obliged to keep out of school last spring on account of chronic catarrh has changed from a thin, pale, nervous child to a rosy, healthy girl and has gone back to school this fall.

"Grape-Nuts and fresh air were the only agents used to accomplish the happy results."

Read "The Road to Wellville," in plge. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.
